

Volunteers' View

TCV works with thousands of volunteers across the UK. Each project improves our world in small but profound ways, connecting people and green spaces to deliver lasting outcomes for both – creating healthier, happier communities for everyone.

Here's what our volunteers have to say*...

95%

95% of our volunteers rated their volunteering experience with TCV as excellent or good.

98%

98% of our volunteers are very likely or likely to recommend TCV to family & friends.

I made a positive impact on the environment

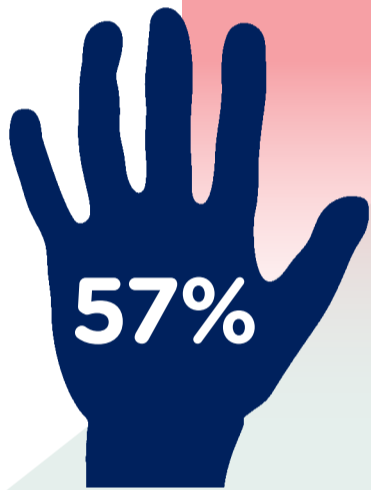

I made a positive impact on the community

It helped me to feel healthier

It helped me to develop new skills

It helped me to meet more people

Top 5 volunteering impacts

What we do well...

Really friendly, supportive and knowledgeable staff.

Our Project Officer is a superstar!

I enjoy making a difference to my environment.

This is one of the best things I have done in my life.

Well organised and welcoming.

Volunteering with TCV is great fun too!

Wonderful to be a part of TCV... it adds peace to my life.

How we could do better

More resources including tools.

More varied times and opportunities to volunteer.

Better communication.

More local projects.

It is only through feedback that we can continue to improve the way we work. Give us your thoughts and let's make volunteering with TCV the best experience it can be: www.tcv.org.uk/contact

*This was based on 367 responses to a survey sent to 1423 volunteers with an active email address